

Dive Into Your Imagination

(note: recording is ½ step lower)

Dsus2 D Dsus4 D Bm A

The Ocean, home to fishes

Dsus2 D Dsus4 D Bm A Em Bm

The Ocean home to critters unbelievable to you and me

G A

Better than cartoons, you'll see...

G D Em D

There's lionfish, and hairy fish, and even stick out your tongue fish

G D E A7

There's hermit crabs and mantis shrimp and fish that go to school

D A Em Bm

But how can you go swim in the sea?

G A Bm A

Put your mask on, get your fins, and be ready to

D G A D G A

Dive into your imagination with me.

D G A D G A

Dive into your imagination with me.

Dsus2 D Dsus4 D Bm A

Eight arms for an Octopus, Two claws for a crab

Dsus2 D Dsus4 D Bm A

A shark that has tiny teeth, a parrot fish with a great big beak

G D Em D

There's cuddle fish, and pipe fish, with their changing colors

G D E A7

There's clown fish and frog fish and porcupine puffer fish

D A Em Bm

So how can you go swim in the sea?

G A Bm A

Put your mask on, grab your fins, and you're ready to

D G A D G A

Dive into your imagination with me.

D G A D G A

Dive into your imagination with me.

G D Em Bm
Splash in the bathtub, have fun in the pool

G D Em Asus4 A
Let's learn about the fishes, before you get to school

G D Em Bm
You don't need an Ocean, to learn about the sea

G A G D A D G A
Just use your imagination and dive in with me

G A G D A D G A
Use your imagination and dive in with me

D G A (Repeat and ad lib)
